

Wheels to go

N. Y. POST

FORGET flowers, candy or a "thank you" lunch. Guys like Tom Selleck really know how to show their gratitude. The other day actor Larry Manetti — Rick on Magnum P.I. — answered his doorbell in L.A. and found a messenger standing out front. He said he had a package to deliver and handed him a card. Manetti read the card, but didn't see any brown paper parcels, so he asked the messenger where the package was. The messenger pointed to a brand-new black Porsche 928 parked in the driveway. Magnum co-star Selleck had sent it over. The note read simply, "To Larry, love, Tom." But Selleck didn't stop there. Co-stars Roger Mosley and John Hillerman were also treated to new wheels for their efforts on the show by the grateful Selleck.
